JOHN WILSON,
Commissioner of the General Land Office.

Notice to actual settlers on lands of the United States originally withdrawn from market on account of the railroad grant.

Under act of Congress, approved 3d March, 1853, entitled "An act to extend pre-emption rights to certain lands therein mentioned," the pre-emption laws of the United States as they now exist are extended over the alternate reserved sections of public lands along the line of the railroad hereinbefore mentioned, where the settlement and improvement were made prior to the final allotment of the alternate sections to the said railroad. Therefore, all claims by pre-emption to any of the alternate originally reserved will attach, if predicated upon settlements made prior to the 4th February, 1853, the date of the final allotment.

Claims within the six miles limits must be proven up at any, time before the day herein fixed for the commencement of the public sale, and are to be paid for at the rate of two dollars and fifty cents per acre. Claims outside of the six miles, and within the limits of the original reservation, must be proven up prior to the restoration of said lands to private entry.

Soldiers' bounty land warrants, at a dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, may be received in navment for either class of lands; one warrant of the same first cents and the southeast quarter of the northwest quarter o

Soldiers' bounty land warrants, at a dollar and twenty-five cents per acre, may be received in payment for either class of lands; one warrant only, however, can be located by each pre-emptor. Immediately after the close of the public sale directed by the foregoing proclamation of the President, applications will be received for the purchase at private entry, or location by warrants, of the lands reserved to satisfy this grant, outside of the six miles limits, in such order as to prevent confusion and insure accuracy, in accordance with instructions to be issued to the registers and receivers.

JOHN WILSON,

Commissioner of the General Land Office.

It is unnecessary to present at length the evidences of the wonderful properties of the Tricopherous when the public have furnished such an endorsement as this. The cheapness of the article, and the explanations given of its chemical action upon the hair, the scalp, and in all cases of superficial irritation, first recommended it to the attention of the people. This was all that the inventor desired. Every bottle advertised itself. The effects of the fluid exceeded expectation. It acted like a charm. The ladies would not be without it. RED RIVER RAFT.

THE PERSON to whom the contract was awarded under former advertisements for proposals having failed to give the bond with sureties as required, proposals for the work are again invited as follows:

exceed the sum of $100,000.

Each bidder will propose to remove said raft, (thoroughly.) and to keep the navigation free from obstruction thereby for a specified period; specifying in his bid the time in which he proposes to complete the removal of the raft, the said time not to be later than the lat day of June, 1855; and also the number of verse counting from said time not to be later than the lat day of June, 1855; and also the number of years, counting from said removal, during which time he binds himself to keep the said navigation free from raft obstruction. The contractor will be required to give his bond for $20,000, with two good sureties, each for the sum of $10,000, conditioned for the faithful execution of the contract. Each bidder will transmit, at the same time with his proposals, the names of the persons whom he offers as sureties, and a declaration signed by them that they will sign his bond as sureties as above mentioned; and also the certifition signed by them that they will sign his bond as sureties as above mentioned; and also the certifi-cate of a district judge of the United States for the State in which he resides, that said securities are respectable citizens, and that he considers them worth $10,000 over and above all their debts and liabilities. No bid will be examined unless these conditions shall be complied with.

Terms of payment.

Of the sum of $100,000 appropriated for the above object, $50,000 shall be paid as the work of removing the raft advances, as follows—to wit: Whenever the contractor shall report that a portion of the raft has been removed, the same shall report that a portion of the raft has been removed, the same shall report that a position of the raft has been removed, the same shall report that the war.

SUMMER SKETCHES-No. 10.

BY MARY J. WINDLE.

SHANNONDALE SPRINGS, August 6, 1853. It was a beautiful day yesterday; the water of the last day's raining was swept away by the nds of the night previous, and the sun ca in smiles to see the earth after her washing; it was a day of all others for a country ride, and in less than an hour a group of girls had donned strong esses and were ready to embark on their novel imals was the vehicle for the occasion, and into this our merry party were stowed away. The close proximity of some dozen in a wagon, (hast ever tried it, reader?) is a great enemy to anything Still lingers on the city's tallest spire, like distance of manner or feeling, and we were all on just the happiest footing in the world

There were four horses, and Mr. like a sultan driving his harem, or like an undeveloped Mormon. Freshly swept the sweetscented wind upward, after stooping momentarily to the flowers and grass-blades; and a wild, joymaddened burst of mingled melodies went up fro the woodland, as a crowd of young birds started from their coverts, and winged their way heaven ward.

Oh, such roads! Our ample wagon was like a miniature ark of particularly clumsy make, now rising on the tip-top of a billow, and suddenly sinking almost out of sight; the patient animals drew us up and down through hills on whose impracticable roughness no city hack could be trusted. Then we had an overturn, and that was the climax of the day's enjoyment; for nobody was hurt, and everybody laughed, and perpetrated stale witticism, and laughed at them again, till the birds were no doubt convinced that upsetting a big wagon is one of the rarest sports we humans engage in. Next the horses, panting as if worm out by their own strong will, set their forward feet stubbornly down, refusing to part company with the turf even for an instant, manifesting an invincible repugnance to move. The driver flourished his whip; the gentlemen coaxed the horses, soothed the driver, and laughed with us, who with comical glances, half of mirth half of anxiety, nibbled the tips of our kid gloves and wondered what we should do. Then all at once one prying fellow of our party announced that a spring was broken, a pin lost, or something of that sort had occurred, which women are sure to get wrong if they mention it afterwards; to which the provoking driver responded that a horse had lost a shoe. And so, as in duty bound, we all laughed again, not heartily as before, but a nervous, hysterical laugh. The gentlemen looked perplexed; we cast sidelong glances at the woods; and the driver used harder words than ever. A consultation was now held, rather short to be sure, as consultations are apt to be when there remains but one path to choose; and then each gentleman tucked a lady under his arm, and on we jogged as merrily as before, leaving the crest-fallen driver to return home at his leisure. He was a man of dignified deportment and mature years—a man who had driven the F. F. V's .- governors, judges, members of Congress, sheriffs, and the like-with perfect safety and considerable credit; but he was now informed that he was ignorant-had no knowledge of horses-was a stupid fellow, with other his self-confidence. We walked slowly on, admiring and chatting quired, proposals for the work are again invited as follows:

Proposals will be received until the 20th day of next September for the removal of obstructions to the navigation of Red river (Louisiana) occasioned by the raft, and for keeping the said navigation free from the same for the lougest period.

If we reached the dearest little old-fashioned farm-house in the world. There were wide, low and finishers, who demand an advance of fifteen per cent., which the employers refuse to allow. Over five thousand miners and colliers employed at the Dawlas (South Wales) iron works islands of vellow gravel notice in the longest period. The ameunt of these proposals united is not to exceed the sum of $100,000.

All around were woods, ancient enough and round were woods, ancient enough and round were woods. All around were woods, ancient enough and romantic enough to please even Miss --, who has a talent for summoning up charming reveries of love in a cottage, angels with wings, and life all sunshine and no clouds.

Dark-eyed children, in neat, coarse dresses vere playing about the cottage; and a tall, sunbrowned man cordially invited us into a little room full of flowers and green bushes, through the leaves of which the hot air, made heavy by the weight of the sunshine, cooled itself, and dallied lovingly with the flowers, then came to play about us who knew so well how to appreciate both its freshness and its perfume.

"A little paradise! I'd love to sit here and read Childe Harold," whispered my romantic friend. "A pretty good housekeeper for the woods," returned in the same tone.

"Housekeeper, indeed! Who would think of a ousekeeper's arranging all this?'

It was undoubtedly some little sprite, with taste mough to prefer such a bright spot to fairy land!

Whenever the contractor shall report that a portion of the raft has been removed, the same shall be inspected by an officer appointed by the War Department; and if it shall appear that such is the fact, the Department will pay such a proportion of the said sum of $50,000 as the portion removed shall bear to the entire raft, provided no partial payment shall be made for less than one tenth part of the whole work. The remaining $50,000 will be paid in equal annual instalments corresponding in number with the number of years during which the contractor shall bind himself to keep the navigation open, of which fact the Department is to be the sole judge.

Each bid must be for the whole work—that is, for the removal of the raft, and for keeping the river open for a specified period. No separate proposals for portions of it will be considered.

The proposals will be addressed to the undersigned, marked on the envelope, "Proposals for removing Red River Raft."

The War Department reserves to itself the right of awarding the contract according to its own judgment of the most favorable bid and the most investment of the work favorable bid and the most investment of the work favorable bid and the most investment of the work favorable bid and the most investment of the work favorable bid and the most investment of the work favorable bid and the most investment of the war bear to the contract according to its own judgment of the most favorable bid and the most investment of the war bear to the war bear to the war bear that such in this little room by one of the gentlemen, she cordially welcomed us; and shortly after we were seated around a plentiful foortly after we were seated around a plentiful board, and—oh! didn't we do justice to the same!

The Queen is expected to visit Dublin about the 5th or 6th of August. O'Connell's heuse in Merrion Square South, Dublin, for forty years the residence of the late liberator, was sold the other day for £250, to John O'Farrell, barrister. The house was miserably out of renair. A Camp of day for £250, to John O'Farrell, barrister. The house was miserably out of repair. A Camp of Exercise similar to that now on Chobham heath is to be formed in the Currogh of Kildare, Ireland, this fall. The accounts of the potato crop continue hopeful, and, so far, there is every reason to believe that the disease, if it has at all made its appearance, is so limited in extent as to be scarcely worth noticing. Another fortnight, or less time, will set all doubts at rest. Setting aside the reports of interested parties, it would appear that the agricultural prospects of the islands are far from unfavorable. All kinds of grain are stated to be very healthy, and fast progressing to maturity. The yield of wheat will be short, even shorter than in former seasons, but this deficiency will be fully compensated by the abundance of oats and barley, as well as of all green crops.

A late writer from East India says: "The difficult and dangerous state of navigation of the Hoogly is likely to render access to the port of Calcutta impracticable for vessels of any considerable tonnage. Owing to the low state of water the pilots had declined taking vessels of more than 500 tons out of the river without steam. Several American vessels, after getting ready for sea, had been detained six or seven weeks, waiting an opportunity to go down the river."

been detained six or seven weeks, waiting an opportunity to go down the river."

The value of imports of the colony of Australia for the year 1851 amounted to £1,056,000, and the following year to £4,944,00. The increase in the amount of the export produce for the same period is still more striking, being from £1,424,000 to £7,452,000. A large amount of gold, it has since been ascertained, was exported from the colony, but not included in this sum of £7,452,000, a careful estimate of which gives the total of £14,880,000 as the value of the entire exports for the year. the year.

A writer from the Sandwich Islands says: "These Islands are in what may be called a transition state. From a population in Captain Cook's time of 400,000, they have dwindled away to less than 80,000. The annual rate of decrease is said by good judges to exceed five per cent., so that twenty years will witness the entire extinction of the race. The government, which is perhaps as good as it could be for the protection of the natives, is yet oppressive and illiberal towards he foreigner. A letter from Surinam, dated July 16, states that the slaves there are soon to be emancipated, and that one thousand Chinese coolies are to take their places. THE REV. DR. KING .- A private letter received by the Baltic says: "The claim of Dr. King, at Athens, has been settled by the offer of the Greek government to pay twelve thousand drachmas for his land appropriated to public use. As I antici-pated, the religious part of his griefs is not recog-nised as entitled to redress." SAD MORTALITY AMONG AMERICAN SEA CAP-TAINS IN CALCUTTA.—The following is an extract from a letter received in this city, from Calcutta, dated June 3, 1853:

"Captain Doane, of the clipper-ship John Gil-pin, died this morning of fever; and his wife died last night of cholera, and they are to be buried to-gether to-night. The worst of the season is now over, as we have had several heavy showers which have cooled the atmosphere considerably, and the rains must soon set in for the season." We learn also, from another letter, that Captain Grozier, of ship Ellen Foster, of Boston, died at Calcutta May 24.—Boston Traveller, 6th. Intelligence from Cape Town to June 11th was favorable. Peace was generally re-established apparently upon a firm basis. The new constitution had been generally discussed through the country, and was very cordially received.

News from Buenos Ayres. We have received news from Buenos Ayres to

The Africa arrived out at an early hour on Saturday morning, 24th, making the run in 10 days 11 hours and 34 minutes from this port.

The ship Ebenezer, at Liverpool 25th, brought intelligence of the total destruction by fire of the packet-ship I. Z. on the 7th instant, in latitude 42, longitude 62. The I. Z., 750 tons burden, sailed from New York July 2, under the command of Captain Spancer, for Liverpool with a command of Captain Spancer, for Liverpool with a command of Captain Spancer, for Liverpool with a command the 10th of June—seventeen days later than our advices by the way of England. We translate from El Comercio del Plats, of Montevideo, of June 21, the following news:

The steamer Sheltis came in from Buenos Ayres. There is nothing changed in the political situation of the country. A schooner and a smack, taken from the squadron of Mr. Coe, had been placed at the disposition of the government. The former of the vessels was under the command of Colonel Jose Maria Pinedo, who presented himself, and also his crew and armament, city. The captain and all hands, twenty in number, were rescued by the Ebenezer, and landed at Liverpool.

The Deputy Azcuenaga yesterday made a motion before the House to authorize the government to negotiate with the resident citizens, and without the intervention of any foreign power, for the re-establishment of peace in the province, on the basis of its sovereignty and the territorial integrity. The committee reported against the project in all its parts. The newspapers give no account of the result of the session, which was to terminate on the 18th.

It was stated that the foreign agents had reported negatively with regard to the pretension of their respective fellow-citizens in the case of the blockade, and it was believed that as soon as this result should become known the arming of the Scenes about the New York Crystal Palace.—A letter from New York, speaking of the "sights" in the vicinity of the Crystal Palace, "As if it were not bad enough to have scores of deformed animals on exhibition—woolly horses, and horses without any wool—monkeys, dancing bears, baboons, rattlesnakes, anacondas, and other stance of our never having met before in our lives was altogether lost sight of.

During the repast one of the elderly gentlemen, who had devoted his life to collecting information regarding the antiquities of Virginia, diving into ancient chronicles, and deciphering the inscriptions on old tombstones, entertained us with the origin of "Lover's Rock," which was of course an interesting subject to the unmarried portion of our party. The gentleman referred to seemed to have compiled a complete chronicle of Jefferson county, from the earliest times down to his own—statistical, descriptive, biographical, and historical.

The strikes at Stockton are still unsettled; the workmen offer to arbitrate their demands, but the workmen offer to arbitrate their demands, but the commenced business in three different shanties. Vulgar paintings of gods and goddesses are hungout for signs to attract the lewd, and though clear by coming within the provisions of the statute, not the slightest effort is made by the police to abolish the abomination. The houses in which these discraceful allurements are permitted, are but temporary concerns, the intentions of the proprietors being to demolish them as soon as the Exhibition closes. The ground on which they stand is all leased at enormous prices. For the privilege of putting up a two-story shed in 424 owner paid $3,000 for eighteen months. The other workers of the Universe, their address to the public, They very properly proportionately high."
